Natural Resource Outreach and Service Programs Honored for Outstanding Work, Showcased at National Conference

UC California Naturalist Program receives 2018 ANROSP Outstanding Program Evaluation Award

NEW ORLEANS, LA (September 14, 2018) – The Alliance of Natural Resource Outreach and Service Programs (ANROSP) concluded its national conference with an awards ceremony held at the Jean Lafitte Conference Center.

The UC California Naturalist Program \(CalNat\) received the 2018 ANROSP Outstanding Program Evaluation Award. This award recognizes the value and importance of program evaluation by highlighting ANROSP member program evaluation efforts, including the tools used to conduct evaluations and communications efforts employed to share results. For more information about CalNat, please contact Sabrina Drill, Associate Director, UC California Naturalist Program, University of California Cooperative Extension at sdrill@ucanr.edu or 805-645-1466.

Michelle Prysby, ANROSP President and Virginia Master Naturalist Program Director, said "ANROSP provides member programs an opportunity to share their best work in the areas of Outstanding Educational Materials, Outstanding Volunteer Project, Outstanding Team, Outstanding Program Evaluation and Program of the Year. Each year ANROSP is proud to highlight programs from across the United States in each of these categories." Award applications are peer reviewed and selection is made by the ANROSP Awards Committee, chaired by the ANROSP Vice President.

About ANROSP: The Alliance of Natural Resource Outreach and Service Programs is a national network of natural resource education and service programs which provides leadership, information, and resources to support the establishment and expansion of its member programs.
